texts and discourse with classmates.
Students need to know how to do things:
how to explain, persuade, outline and argue a thesis, distinguish between important and unimportant information, make transitions, identify cause and effect and more.

In order to pass the level 2 Functional Skills Reading exam you need to be able to read and summarise information and ideas from different sources. In plain English what that means is that you must be able to take two texts and say how they are similar (or different) using short quotations from the texts.
